Heathlands Park is a residential retirement Park, it is a third-generation family business that takes pride in creating a beautiful and peaceful environment for you to enjoy your retirement.

With it being a retirement park (65 years old and over), it has created a close and friendly community amongst the residents. We offer residential park homes that can be created to your own dream specification.

Heathlands Park is in a desirable location of East Ipswich, close to the town centre of Ipswich but just outside the Ipswich town boundary, in a quiet position bordering the local golf course. Situated just outside is a bus stop that services the towns centre and two major supermarkets. Within 5 minutes walking distance is a co-op grocery store, post office, chemist, and hairdressers. Other local amenities include the Golf hotel pub, a doctor's surgery, and Ipswich hospital. Gas heating, Water Included, Parking,
